* Elsenburg

Elsenburg bread is mainly French-style sourdough bread. Only natural ingredients are used. The best quality flour, Celtic sea salt and Amersfoort's groundwater form the basis of every bread. The sourdough, or the mother dough, is cherished and nourished. Every day the loaves are shaped by hand and then freshly baked. The bread has a long ripening time. This improves the taste, structure and shelf life. In addition, this has a positive effect on digestion, but above all it is delicious.
